

Lick Of The Week #32

By Emil Ernebro

I went to a guitarstore today to listen to a couple of guitarplayers named Rolf Jardemark and Peter Almqvist. It was great fun and I really enjoyed listening to their nice playing. They played a nice version of the old standard "All The Things You Are", and after the concert, I got myself a copy of one of Peter's albums named "My Sound". I listened to the cd on the way back to my place, and I thought it was great! The album has some solo performances and also a few duets, both guitars are played by Peter.

I wanted to share the opening licks on his solo on "All The Things You Are", and I hope you like it as much as I do. I chose these lines, because I think you can really learn from them, and they are not difficult to play. The lines are simple and have a strong melody, wich caught my ear. There's a lot of great licks on this record, and I'm now going to try to learn some more from it! :)

Enjoy!

Swing 8th's      Fm<sup>7</sup>                      Bbm<sup>7</sup>                      Eb<sup>7</sup>                      Abmaj<sup>7</sup>

Dbmaj<sup>7</sup>                      G<sup>7</sup>                      Cmaj<sup>7</sup>